- Tales of Gogetsu -

Those of our clan inherit the fighting spirit of our bloodline

GOGETSUJI

The name responsible for the ongoing feud for control of the clan.

As outlined in the family code, the bloodline must continue to grow even stronger and eliminate all those who are weak.

The Gogetsuji Clan is currently the 3rd wealthiest family in the world. As a result, there are many who seek control of the clan and the family fortune.

Some train endlessly building up their strength, others polish up on their fighting skills with experience, and still others concentrate on their fighting spirit, all for control of the clan.

Because there were so many fighters vying for control of the clan, Oshima, the 3rd Gogetsu Leader, declared the following to all:

The clan will hold a fighting tournament every 5 years. The winner of this "Test of Strength" tournament will assume immediate control of the Gogetsu Clan until the next tournament, at which time the seat for control will be open once again. Any member with blood ties to the clan may enter.

- Decreed this day in the 14th year of the Taisho era -

Story Mode

- Play against the computer and try to defeat all other characters to become the new Gogetsu Clan Leader. The final match will be against the reigning leader, Oume.

- Use the 2nd Player Join-In feature to join in anytime during the game! Press the Start Button on either the 1P or 2P controller not in use to join in!

VS Mode

- Play against a friend in this mode!
- The Results Screen will be displayed after each match, allowing you to view a record of your results.
- Use the handicap feature to make up for any differences in fighting skills.
- Background select feature.
- As long as the game is not reset or the power is not turned off, a record of your results will continue to be recorded in the Results Screen after each match.

The Gogetsu Combat Tournament Rules

1) The object of the tournament is to win!
2) Damage your opponent to exhaust your opponent's Life Meter to win a round.
3) Win 2 rounds to win a match!
4) If after 4 rounds a winner cannot be decided, the person with the most victories will be declared the winner.
5) In the event a winner still cannot be decided, the match will end in a draw.
6) If the Timer runs out, the player with the most Life left on their Life Meter is the winner.
7) Don't despair if you lose, there will come a day when you will win!

JOIN-IN MODE & CONTINUE

Join-In Mode

• Now you can join in anytime during game play! Even during the Story Mode! Pick up the controller that is not being used and press the Start Button. The Character Select Screen will appear and you may select your character.

Continue

• The loser of the match will be able to continue by pressing the Start Button before the Continue Timer runs out. If the Timer reaches 0, the game is over.

* This is an exclusive 1 Player mode. If the player is using the 1P controller, the computer will use the 2P side. If the player is using the 2P controller, the computer will use the 1P side.

Practice 1 Mode

• This mode is used for practicing Special Attacks, Combination Attacks, and defensive moves.
• Your opponent will not attack. They will be in a "motionless" state so that you may practice your attacks.
• When you have mastered a combination attack, the number of hits in your Combination Attack will appear on the screen. Create your own Combination Attacks and improve your skills!

Practice 1 Mode COM

1) The computer character will be in the standing (squatting) position and will not move, jump or attack your character.
2) Your 1st attack will not be blocked, but the 2nd attack and any thereafter that are not Combination Attacks will be blocked.
3) If the computer character is in the block/guard position, it will go back to its original standing position after your character moves away from it.
4) Even after the Life Meter reaches 0, the computer character will not be knocked out.

How to Control & Exit PRACTICE Mode 1

• Controls in this mode are the same as in the other modes.
• To exit the Practice 1 Mode, press both the L & R Buttons at the same time.

Practice 2 Mode

- This is a sparing mode in which your character will fight against the computer. However, your Life Meter will not be affected.
- Study the moves of the computer carefully and practice your combination attacks and defensive moves.
- When you have mastered a Combination Attack, the number of hits in your Combination Attack will appear as in the [PRACTICE 1 Mode].

Practice 2 Mode COM

1) Choose your level of difficulty and COM character opponent in the sub screen.
2) Even after the Life Meter reaches 0, the computer character will not be knocked out.

How to Control & Exit PRACTICE 2 Mode

- Controls in this mode are the same as in the other modes.
- To exit the Practice 2 Mode, press both the L & R Buttons at the same time.

LIFE ATTACK MODE

- This is also a 1 Player Mode.
- Use this battle mode to see how many opponents you can defeat with just 1 Life Meter!
- Select 8, 16, or an (infinite) number of opponents to fight.
- In the event you select 8 or 16 opponents, this mode   will end after defeating all opponents. However, in the event (infinite) is selected, there is no limit as to the number of opponents you will fight.
- Game Over when your Life Meter reaches 0.

Basic Advice for Battle

Basic Attacks

- Basic attacks are Punches and Kicks that you would normally use by pressing the attack buttons.
- Weak attacks do little damage but can be done quickly and in rapid succession.
- Strong attacks are slower but do more damage. Strong attacks cannot be done in rapid succession.
- Long distance attacks depend on the character. Some will have longer reaching attacks than others.
- Crouch attacks can be used against crouching or standing opponents.

Special Attacks

- Each character has mastered a number of their own Special Attacks that can cause a lot of damage to their opponents.
- Some Special Attacks can be done mid-air, while others allow your character to avoid your opponent's attacks.

Jump Attacks

- Jump Attacks are quite effective as long distance attacks.
- You can jump a 2nd time while jumping for a Double Jump!
- Your character cannot Double Jump when using a Jump

Attack.
- Your character will become invincible for a brief moment when performing a Double Jump. Use this to avoid your opponent's attacks!

Guard (Block)

- Block your opponent's attack by pressing back on the + Control Pad.
- To block a Jump Attack (excluding Special Attacks), your character must be in the Stand Guard position.
- To block low/ground attacks, your character must be in the Crouch Guard position.
- Special Attacks will cause some damage even if the attack is blocked.

Throw Attack

- To throw an opponent, approach them and press the + Control Pad forward + Strong Punch Button.
- Angela is the only character that will seize her opponent instead of throwing them.
- The Throw Attack cannot be blocked. Should your opponent be blocking all of your attacks, it will be more effective to throw them instead.
- When up in mid-air, you can throw your opponent in mid-air if you are near your opponent!

Combination Attacks

- After using a General Attack, immediately input the command for a Special Attack. The Special Attack will immediately follow the General Attack and will cause great damage to your opponent.
- After each attack, your opponent will take on the "Damage Pose". At this time, quickly attack your opponent again with a rapid succession of attacks and they will not be able to block them.
- Using Combination Attacks are very effective and cause great damage to your opponent.

REGARDING KUROKO

<Special Features>

Each participant in the Gogetsu Tournament will receive their own Kuroko, a personal assistant. Should Kuroko's master win, his position in the clan will also advance to a higher ranking.

Kuroko's true identity is a mystery. One day he is an errand boy, the next day he could be an assassin, and the next day he might be the official Gogetsu Master of Ceremonies....Could he be someone who lost in the Gogetsu Combat Tournament?
