PROLOGUE

During the spring of 1999, an extremely unusual event occurred in the small town of Salinas. Salinas is located in the suburbs of a major city. Also located in this peaceful area is Memorial Hospital. Due to its pharmaceutical studies, the hospital is a major contributor to the economy of this small town.

A seventeen-year-old high school girl named Alyssa Hale was on her way to Salinas to visit her father's friend Mr. Phillip Tate. Along the way, Alyssa looked at the red amulet in her hand. She believes this amulet has some sort of power over her. As she stared into the amulet, a vision of horror engulfed her mind; she saw herself holding a knife in her right hand while looking down at her friends lying in a pool of blood on the floor. She had no idea what happened. It was earlier discovered that another personality resided in her soul, an entity called Mr. Bates. Alyssa was forced to undergo intense therapy because of this cold-blooded, immoral male personality. Although the incident occurred only one month earlier, she is unable to recall anything about it. Alyssa refuses to believe she is capable of something as horrific as the event in her vision.

Alyssa looked once more at the amulet. She realized that somehow her amulet had to be tied in with Mr. Bates. She remembered not having her amulet on when she awoke from Bates' invasion of her psyche. Alyssa soon realized that as long as she had her amulet, her soul would be safe from Mr. Bates and she could be herself.

When Alyssa arrived at the Tate's residence, no one was home. Something seemed strange. Alyssa knew that the Tate's were expecting her. Perhaps they had forgotten. Alyssa noticed a series of strange low-toned squeaking noises echoing throughout the small house. Then, she saw something! Lying in a pool of blood was what appeared to be a rotting corpse. Alyssa slowly approached the mangled remains only to realize to her relief that it was not human. But if it was not human, what could it be? And where were the family members?

And thus, the story begins...

The Curse of the Maxwells

Sitting in a dark kitchen, Phillip Tate and his wife Kathryn were very concerned. They were discussing the Curse of the Maxwells and what it meant to them. Just then, something horrible happened. Kathryn screamed...

GETTING STARTED

Strange squeaking noise...

The horrible incident has already happened.

"Hello! I'm here. It's Alyssa from San Francisco." Alyssa Hale has arrived at the residence of her father's friend, Mr. Phillip Tate. No one answered the door, but it looked like somebody was home.

When you start a game, the opening movie will begin. Press the start button (or X button, or L1) to exit the movie. After the start button is pressed, the main menu will be displayed. If no input is made, the opening movie will repeat.

MAIN MENU

NEW GAME

Select this option to begin a new game.

DATA LOAD

Select this when starting a saved game from the memory card. After you make this selection, the "Data Loading" screen will appear.

OPTIONS

Skip event function ON/OFF, analog controller settings, etc.

GAME TERMINOLOGY

Cursor

The cursor is the arrow displayed on the screen. Use the cursor (click) on a selected location to move main character (if double clicked, the character begins to run). If clicked on a click point, the main character executes an action. The cursor's shape may differ according to the main character's situation.

Click Point

The cursor will change shape when placed on certain objects. This indicates that the character can perform an action with that object or person. These points where the cursor changes are called click points.

Item Window

When the cursor is moved to the upper portion of the screen, items that a character has gathered in the game will appear. Click on the item you wish to use. The picture of the item will replace the picture of the cursor arrow. Click on a click point to use an item that you have selected.

Panic Mode

When the main character is being chased or is in danger, the cursor will flash red. This situation is called a panic situation. While the cursor is flashing, press the  button repeatedly to escape.

Escape Mode

When the main character is chased by an enemy (situation differs according to each scenario), this is known as Escape Mode. While in Escape Mode, the click point will appear on items and/or objects that can be used to fight or hide from the enemy. Escape Mode will not end until you repulse the enemy or escape from him/her.

GAME FLOW

Mr. Bates, who shares Alyssa's soul, was evoked by a tragic incident bestowed upon the Tate family. Alyssa and Mr. Bates are now one and share the same body. More tragedies are sure to occur because of their distressed mental status.

Scenario Development and Ending

You can make it through scenarios by skillfully using Alyssa and her other personality, Mr. Bates. Some events can be cleared with Alyssa, while Mr. Bates can clear other events. There are 13 possible endings. The ending you receive will depend upon your performance and choices in the various scenarios. Game credits will be displayed at the end of the game.

Situation Change

While Alyssa holds the amulet, Mr. Bates cannot emerge and control her. The amulet can be placed in rooms within vases or other types of containers.

When Alyssa does not have the amulet in her possession, she feels extremely insecure and her fear may evoke Mr. Bates. If Alyssa has already changed to Mr. Bates, she can change back by retrieving her amulet.

As Mr. Bates emerges, Alyssa thinks to herself, "Stop...Go Away! Don't be afraid..."

Alyssa: Attacking an enemy

If you go into Escape Mode while the main character is Alyssa, you will not be able to use any weapons that you may find. Instead, Alyssa can use items spread throughout the scenarios or hide from the attacker.

Mr. Bates: Attacking an enemy

If Escape Mode occurs while the main character is Mr. Bates, you can use your obtained weapons against the enemies. When equipped with a weapon, the cursor will change into a crosshair. When you move this cursor onto the enemy and the crosshair locks on, you will be able to attack the enemy by clicking the cursor. The number displayed on the weapon icon is the amount of remaining ammo (number of attacks you have left).

The main character has 3 levels of stamina. During the Panic Mode, the cursor will change colors (white, yellow, and red) to indicate different levels of stamina. Unless you obtain a first aid kit, the stamina will not return to its original state. Once the cursor is flashing red, your stamina has been completely used up. At this point, you will be unable to use the panic feature.

First Aid Kit

When you obtain a first aid kit, your stamina will automatically recover. You will only be able to find a first aid kit when your stamina is decreased by one level.

GAME OVER

Suddenly, Allen Hale changed into something. What is the Maxwells' curse? Where is the Golden Statue? Allen's second daughter, Stephanie became a bloodthirsty killer. Everything that has happened here will lead to more tragedies.

When the main character's stamina is zero or you fail to press the button repeatedly in the Panic Mode, the game will be over and the game over screen will be displayed. When the game is over, you will see this display "CONTINUE?" / "YES", "NO". If you would like to continue the game, move the cursor to "YES" and click. When you click "YES", the game will restart from where the character entered the room he/she was last in. Your stamina will increase by one level.

In case you choose to quit the game, move the cursor to "NO" and click. After "Game Over" appears on the screen, the game returns to the title screen. Be aware that once you end the game, you can not restart the game by using the Data Load feature unless you have already saved it.
